

Bernhard Sonntag,
Chairman & Owner

Bernhard Sonntag is the founder and owner of BSI® B business S

He is a demanded and highly trusted, well known key note speaker on important business congresses & His thoughts are big & global and are inspiring people for new innovations of new products & services for

With more than 20 years experience as a consultant, coach, trainer, moderator on big international conferences

He has got a proven track record in developing and implementing innovative management concepts for

He has created many business models e.g. MUDIMAN®, 14 P Value Process Model, Coaching Model and

These models are very helpful for Business Managers and are very practical for creating value based businesses

Before implementing management-, marketing- or training concepts his main focus lies on improving decision making

He often initiates and realises business forums and meetings for all management levels together with employees

After graduating in economics and production engineering at the University in Munich he graduated into business

The results of various projects are being published in the media as well as on conferences symposiums

Customers of Bernhard Sonntag are large as well as mid- and small-sized companies, whose leaders want

```
FB_Addon_TelNo{ height:15px !important; white-space: nowrap !important; background-color: #0ff0ff;}
```